Important Message From Experianback to top

By law, we cannot disclose certain medical information (relating to physical, mental, or behavioral health or condition). Although we do not generally collect such information, it could appear in the name of a data furnisher (i.e., "Cancer Center") that reports your payment history to us. If so, those names display in your report, but in reports to others they display only as MEDICAL PAYMENT DATA. Consumer statements included on your report at your request that contain medical information are disclosed to others.

Know your rightsback to topFCRA Rights

Para informacion en español, visite www.ftc.gov/credit o escribe a la FTC Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

A Summary of Your Rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:

- a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
- you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
- your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
- you are on public assistance;
- you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

All consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information.

Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.

- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1 888 5OPTOUT (1 888 567 8688).
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. Federal enforcers are:

Re: Unauthorized Credit Inquiry

Dear VERIFACTS INC.,

I recently received a copy of my Experian credit report. The credit report showed a credit inquiry by your company that I do not recall authorizing. I understand that you shouldn't be allowed to put an inquiry on any file unless I have authorized it. Please have this inquiry removed from my credit file because it is making it very difficult for me to acquire credit.

I have sent this letter certified mail because I need your prompt response to this issue. Please be so kind as to forward me documentation that you have had the unauthorized inquiry removed.

If you find that I am remiss, and you did have my authorization to inquire into my credit report, then please send me proof of this within (10) business days.

Thanking you in advance,

RE: Response to letter dated 3-2-12

Mr. Jimerson,

We wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter regarding claims of an unauthorized credit inquiry.

VeriFacts, Inc. has a permissible purpose under the Fair Credit Reporting Act to obtain your consumer report in connection with "a credit transaction involving the consumer on whom the information is to be furnished and involving the extension of credit to, or review or collection of an account of, the consumer." There have been a number of court cases to this effect.

However, please note that VeriFacts, Inc. is merely in the business of information gathering and has no interest in any account or debt to be collected from you. VeriFacts, Inc. is not a debt collector and is not attempting to collect a debt from you.

RE: Response to Notice of Pending Lawsuit

Mr. Jimerson,

We have received your "Notice of Pending Lawsuit." As I told you in my letter of March 6, 2012, VeriFacts, Inc. is in the business of information gathering, otherwise known as location services. Our clients are in the debt collection business and VeriFacts provides a location service for them. One of our clients, MSW Capital is attempting to reach you in regards to an existing business relationship and was in need of your current location information. Accordingly, VeriFacts obtained limited contact information from a consumer reporting agency.

VeriFacts has a permissible purpose to receive your credit report under the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We obtained limited location information from your report in connection with the collection of a debt. Nothing in the Fair Credit Reporting Act requires that you consent, or that you have an account with the person making the inquiry or that the inquirer must be a collection agency for this permissible purpose to apply. There have been a number of court cases to this effect.

And, as I mentioned previously, VeriFacts, Inc. is merely in the business of information gathering and has no interest in any account or debt to be collected from you. VeriFacts, Inc. is not attempting to collect a debt from you.

Therefore, VeriFacts, Inc. has not violated any provision of the Fair Credit Reporting Act or the Fair Debt Collection Agencies Act in obtaining your consumer report from Trans Union or Experian. Please be aware that we seek costs when a frivolous lawsuit is filed against us.

Sincerely,

Compliance & Privacy Department

PRIVATE-NON NEGOTIABLE

To whom it may concern:

JAMEY JIMERSON
1799 ALICATNE ST
POMONA, CA. 91768

This email is written to give VERIFACTS INC. the opportunity to avoid a lawsuit in Federal Court. VERIFACTS INC. is in possession of Mr. JIMERSON'S original letters dated 3/02/2012; 4/9/2012. JAMEY JIMERSON is in possession of VERIFACTS INC. letters dated, 3/06/2012.

The FCRA provides definitions for permissions regarding the authority needed to report in or pull and view a consumers credit transaction report.

In your letter dated 3/6/2012, VERIFACTS INC. wrote, "Nothing in the Fair Credit Reporting Act requires that you have an account with the person making the inquiry or that the inquirer must be a collection agency for permissible purpose to apply." In response, the FCRA requires that you have the contractual documentation of a credit transaction, proof of your extension of credit to the consumer which may lead to an account.

"Verifacts, Inc. has a permissible purpose under the Fair Credit Reporting Act to obtain your consumer report in connection..." is a quote from VERIFACTS INC. letter dated 3/6/2012. This quote describes admission of the possession JAMEY JIMERSON'S information.

"However,..."has no interest in any account or debt to be collected from you.." is a quote from VERIFACTS INC. letter dated 3/6/2012. This quote describes admission of a non permissible purpose . FCRA states in § 604. Permissible purposes of consumer reports 15 U.S.C. § 1681b

To a person which it has reason to believe

(A) intends to use the information in connection with a credit transaction involving the consumer on whom the information is to be furnished and involving the extension of credit to, or review or collection of an account of, the consumer; or

VERIFACTS INC. has not provided documentation of a credit transaction nor documentation from me requesting you pull a consumer report for me.

VERIFACTS INC. has not provided documentation for an extension of credit from VERIFACTS INC. to me.

VERIFACTS INC. has admitted it has no interest in any account or debt to be collected from me and is not a debt collector

Yet VERIFACTS INC. pulled Mr. JIMERSON'S consumer report. If VERIFACTS INC. has no interest to view and is not involved with a collection of an account, is not a debt collector and does not possess a credit transaction with me why have they pulled my consumer report?

VERIFACTS INC. must have record of a credit translation involving JAMEY JIMERSON, the consumer with VERIFACTS INC. that could result in an account, to review the report showing said credit transaction or to collect on said credit transaction. Since you have not provided evidence of a transaction and have obtained information from JAMEY JIMERSON'S consumer report, (your admission of such in letter dated 5/6/2012,

"Accordingly, Verifacts obtained limited contact information from a consumer reporting agency.") save yourself time and exhausting monetary efforts in court.

On 7/27/2012 a complaint will be lodged in Federal Court. I am willing to discuss settling this issue out of court, contact me via email only.

Thank you.
